

The Cmolik Prize recognizes recipients who have developed and implemented an invention, innovation, concept, process or procedure that enhances educational practice in the K-12 public school system in BC.

www.cmolik-prize.ca

celebrating
great innovators
in education

2019 WINNER

The Network of Inquiry and Indigenous Education (NOIIE) is made up of inquiry-based schools, educators, and school districts in British Columbia and beyond. Using an inquiry-oriented, evidence-based approach to learning and teaching through the Spiral of Inquiry, the Network is dedicated to: every learner crossing the stage with dignity, purpose and options; every learner leaving our settings more curious than when they arrived; all learners gaining an understanding of and respect for Indigenous ways of knowing; through our collective efforts, eliminating racism in schools.

Nominee: Debbie Leighton-Stephens Team: Judy Halbert, Linda Kaser
Congratulations on a $100,000 innovation!

2019 FINALISTS

Province-wide Network for Environmental Learning Communities of Practice was developed to support public education with programs, resources and funding to advance environmental literacy and citizenship.

Nominee: Kerrie Mortin

Take a Stand: Youth for Conservation was developed to inspire, motivate and empower youth to protect and conserve the environment through art, film and youth-driven action.

Nominee: Allison Kermodé
Team: Norm Hann, Nicolas Teichrob, Anthony Bonello

CMOLIK PRIZE
for the Enhancement of Public Education in BC

CMOLIK PRIZE innovations in education spread across B.C.

PAST WINNERS

2015 Making Learning Visible

2016 Engaging Students' Imaginations in Learning

2017 Building Thinking Classrooms

2019 The Network of Inquiry and Indigenous Education (NOIIE)

Do you know an individual or team whose innovation or practice has made a positive impact to public K-12 education in BC?

Nominate them for the $100,000 Cmolik Prize.
Nominations accepted October 1 – November 30, 2020

celebrating
great innovators
in education

www.cmolik-prize.ca