We have audited the accompanying financial statements of School District No. 73 Business Company, which comprise the balance sheet as at June 30, 2018, and the statements of operations and cash flows for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for private enterprises, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of School District No. 73 Business Company as at June 30, 2018, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for private enterprises.

The financial statements are prepared to assist School District No. 73 (Kamloops/Thompson), and the province of British Columbia. As a result, the financial statements may not be suitable for another purpose. Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2018

1. Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting	As a government business enterprise, Canadian public sector accounting standards require School District No. 73 Business Company (the "Business Company") to adhere to the standards applicable to publicly accountable enterprises in the CPA Handbook-Accounting. Accordingly the Company is required under the Canadian generally accepted accounting principles to prepare its financial statement using the International Financial Reporting Standards. Management has determined that the internal reporting needs of the Company and its shareholder, School District No.73 (Kamloops/Thompson), are met through the use of Canadian accounting standards for private enterprise ("ASPE") and, therefore, these financial statements have been prepared in accordance with that framework. Since ASPE is not designed to necessarily meet the needs of all users of the financial statements of a government business enterprise, the readers of these financial statements may require additional information.
Revenue Recognition	Course fees are recognized as revenue once 14 days or 5% of the courses has been completed as course fees become non refundable at this point. Service contract revenues are recognized as revenue in the year that the services are provided.

Financial Instruments Financial instruments are recorded at fair value at initial recognition.

In subsequent years, equities traded in an active market and derivatives are reported at fair value, with any change in fair value reported in income. All other financial instruments are reported at cost or amortized cost less impairment. Transaction costs on the acquisition, sale or issue of financial instruments are expensed for those items measured at fair value and charged to the financial instrument for those measured at amortized cost.

Financial assets are tested for impairment when indicators of impairment exist. When a significant change in the expected timing or amount of the future cash flows of the financial asset is identified, the carrying amount of the financial asset is reduced and the amount of the write-down is recognized in net income. A previously recognized impairment loss may be reversed to the extent of the improvement, provided it is not greater than the amount that would have been reported at the date of the reversal had the impairment not been recognized previously, and the amount of the reversal is recognized in net income.

Property, Plant and Equipment Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated amortization. In the event that the facts and circumstances indicate that the Business Company's property and equipment may be impaired, an evaluation of the recoverability would be performed. Such an evaluation entails comparing the future undiscounted cash flows associated with the asset to the asset's carrying amount to determine if a writedown to market value or cash flow is required. Any impairment is included in earnings for the year. Amortization is recorded beginning in the year after acquisition. Amortization is provided over the estimated useful life of the assets, using the declining balance method, at the following annual rates:

	Rate
Computer equipment	50%
Computer software	20%
Furniture and equipment	20%

Use of Estimates The preparation of financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for private enterprises requires management to make assumptions and estimates that have an effect on the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the period. Actual results could be different from these estimates.

Foreign Currency Translation Foreign currency accounts are translated into Canadian dollars as follows:

At the transaction date, each asset, liability, revenue and expense is translated into Canadian dollars by the use of the exchange rate in effect at that date. At the year end date, monetary assets and liabilities are translated into Canadian dollars by using the exchange rate in effect at that date. The resulting foreign exchange gains and losses are included in income in the current period except for the foreign currency gains and losses on the long-term monetary items which are deferred and amortized over the remaining terms of the related items.
